

Fact Retrieval Questions

Step one: read poem. Step two: read questions. Step three: find facts. Sounds easy enough, but you still need to practise FACT RETRIEVAL questions — try giving these ones a go.

- 1) Where in the room is the gentleman in grey's door?

under the
table

beside
the mirror

in the corner

behind
the sofa

Circle your answer.

1 mark

- 2) Write down two things the poem tells you about the eyes of the gentleman in grey.

.....
.....

2 marks

- 3) Read the verse that begins 'He swings on the tassels...'

Write down three things the gentleman in grey does in this verse, other than swinging on the tassels.

.....
.....
.....

3 marks

- 4) Which of these does the gentleman in grey eat in the poem? Tick two boxes.

candy crumbs

egg shells

breadcrumbs

apple skins

an apple-seed

a whole cake

1 mark

Poetrydactyls can find facts hidden on an unknown planet in outer space. How about you?

